Workout Specialists:

Christian "Ed"

I hope you have all enjoyed the "Light Workout at Home" that you have been receiving weekly by email concerning the books of the Old Testament.

The weights (facts) you've been learning and lifting are making a difference in your fitness program, and the finish line to the Old Testament is in sight. Yet, I can see that you still need a little more work, so I have enrolled you into a "Light Workout at Home" for the New Testament.

As with the Old Testament work-outs, you will receive weekly worksheets for one or more books of the New Testament.

If you are not receiving your work-out sheets, please contact Leo Richardson (585-382-3153 or grichardson001@rochester.rr.com).

No matter your age, you will come away with not only a great idea of what each New Testament Bible book is all about, but when it took place and how it fits in to the overall "story" that God is telling us in his precious word.

Berean Sunday School Class started a new video series, "Israel's Mission - 5 Lessons on Becoming a Kingdom of Priests in a Prodigal World".

WHAT'S YOUR MISSION?

God gave an assignment to His people thousands of years ago: Bring "lost sheep" back into the love and safety of His kingdom. It's still our task today. In this series you'll glimpse the urgency and rewards of welcoming the strangers and prodigals that the Lord longs to embrace.

Discover the mission that can give your life-and the lives of those around you-greater meaning than you ever imagined.

Class begins on Sunday mornings at 9:50 a.m. in Fellowship Hall.

Do you ever miss the sermon?

I'm sure this question is meant for someone other than yourself, so please pass this along to whom it may concern.

Some reason's why those other people miss the sermon is because they forget to come to church on Sunday. With an aging population that could certainly happen now and again.

Others may come to church, but are so wrapped up in how the Buffalo Bills (insert your distraction) that they can't focus on the topic. Granted there are plenty of things vying for one's attention. Ooops... excuse me but I need to get another cup of coffee. I'm back. Where was I?

Oh yes, and there are those who think that the church would collapse if they darkened the doors. Assure them that the Steeple shows the effects of some mighty strong winds, but the sanctuary is quite stable. We have also paid the electric bill so darkness shouldn't be a problem (unless one is walking in it) Sorry. I digressed a little bit, but that too can be repaired.

Possibly you know of someone (again I assert not you) who misses sermons because they need their rest, have emails to catch up on, enjoy Dr. Charles Stanley re-runs, or they admit to being TV news junkies. They realize that they have their short comings and wish they knew how to get back to church. Google Maps is not their forte yet they realize something is missing, but probably not a sermon that would feed their spiritual appetite. Please tell them that they have been on that starvation diet long enough to kill a hog (maybe substitute a Humming Bird for those who are sensitive).

There are a lot of excuses, I mean reasons for their missing church and a sermon, but here is a way they can nibble their way back. Direct them to LEPC's Official Website: <http://www.seeking-godtogether.com>. I'm sure you go their often, but they might not. Tell them to locate the menu and select "sermon".

It is just below the church title with the witty little saying, "Seeking God Together" (This is you and not them).

Sermons can be found here in the Sermon Library. How cool is that???? This way they can start in the library and work their way up, or down, the street to church. Space is still available!

On the rare chance that your ox falls in the ditch causing you to get it out during church, you could use it too.

Say hi to "them" for me. -Leo
